3. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Michael Mudd, Menifee resident, thanked the City Council for their selection for Interim City Manager. Mr. Mudd said that Ronald E. Bradley has an impeccable record and he will help the City to move forward.

4. DISCUSSION

- 4.1. Commencement of Recruitment of Permanent City Manager and Approval of Interim City Manager Contract Between City of Menifee and Ronald E. Bradley

City Attorney Jeffrey Melching presented the staff report. Mr. Melching reported on the Interim City Manager hiring process that included extensive interviews. Mr. Melching highlighted the agreement with Ronald E. Bradley and the City and stated that per state law, as a CalPERS retiree, Mr. Bradley will be paid the same salary as the previous City Manager. Mr. Melching also stated that after entering into the agreement with Mr. Bradley it is required that the City Council commence the recruitment for the permanent City Manager.

The City Council said they are happy with their choice for Interim City Manager and look forward to working with him. They introduced Mr. Bradley and thanked him for accepting the position.

Mayor Pro Tem Liesemeyer made a motion to commence the recruitment of the permanent City Manager and to approve the agreement of Interim City Manager between Ronald E. Bradley and the City. Councilmember August seconded the motion. The motion passed as follows:

Ayes: August, Denver, Liesemeyer, Sobek, Winter
