

Rancho Ramona Shelter #1

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

Q: Do I have to pay the full balance of fees/deposit upon submission of my application?

A: Yes, full payment, including deposit is due when applications are submitted (for shelters). Recurring field usage can be paid on a monthly basis.

Q: If I cancel my reservation or if it rains, do I get my full payment back?

A: The city requires a 10 day notification for cancellation requests. Administrative fees may apply. Unfortunately, inclement weather does not constitute a refund as our shelters are covered. Field reservations are non-refundable. Please contact the Community Services Department to reschedule a practice as needed.

Q: How and when do I get my deposit back?

A: Deposits are processed after an inspection is completed for the reservation. Typically, deposits are returned within 4-6 weeks after the reservation date.

Q: Are jumpers/bounce houses allowed with shelter reservations?

A: Yes, however the bounce company must provide proof 5 days prior to event, that the City of Menifee is listed as additionally insured.

Q: What do I need to bring in order to reserve a shelter or field?

A: A completed Facility Application Request, proof of residency (such as ID or utility bill) if applying as a Resident and a 501c status designation copy (if applying as a non-profit).

Q: Do I need to reserve a field for pick up games or non-league play?

A: Yes, if these games will be played on a continuing basis, or have 25 or more individuals on the field at one time, then a reservation will be required.
