Become a Menifee Master with Menifee's New Realtor Program

Menifee, CA– A new program in Menifee is now open to real estate professionals who work, sell and conduct business in the City of Menifee and/or the Southwest Riverside County region. Hosted by Menifee's Economic Development Department, the certificate program includes presentations from a variety of city departments, providing information for the real estate community regarding everything they need to know about the City of Menifee, its partners, city departments and what projects are currently in development.

“By giving local real estate professionals an inside look at our internal processes, this program will help them market and sell the quality housing inventory that Menifee offers to prospective homebuyers,” said Economic Development Director, Gina Gonzalez. “This professional group has their finger on the pulse of the community and we want to do our part to ensure that they are able to meet the needs of the growing number of families and professionals who are seeking a high quality of life in Menifee.”

The event will be held at City Hall (29844 Haun Rd.) on Nov. 7 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The cost to participate is $25, which includes breakfast and lunch. Upon successful completion of the program, graduates will receive:

- City of Menifee Certificate of Completion
- Official Menifee Masters Pin
- Graduate group photo
- Recognition as a “Menifee Master”
- Company name on MenifeeBusiness.com as a valued City partner, including a link to your website
