9. COMMUNITY SERVICES SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

9.1 Department Update

- Upcoming Special Events
- RCTC Measure A Grant
- Senior Health and Wellness Fair Update

Community Services Supervisor Hendrix provide information on all upcoming events to the committee members. He also provided information on the Measure A Grant that the City applied for. He explained how the grant would provide funding for seniors to receive free transportation from Dial-A-Ride. More updates of the grant will be given in April.

10. COMMITTEE MEMBER REPORTS ON COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

Committee Member Atwood talked about an email that went out about the food program. He mentioned that he will have space in the newsletter to provide information for people in his neighborhood.

Committee Member Morse mentioned he volunteered and bagged food at the Community Cupboard. He mentioned that he will be getting more involved and will be running for the Board of Directors in his HOA community. He mentioned that he finished up with HICAP. He also talked about golf carts safety in Sun City.

Committee Chair Sanchez suggested for Committee Member Morse to talked to Vice-Chair Blanch about the Golf Carts in Sun City since that is in her district.

Committee Member Novack talked about helping seniors signing up for vaccine and transported them to their appointments.

Committee Chair Sanchez talked about attending an Elder Justice Seminar. She recommended that every member should review the Riverside County Office on Aging master plan. She talked about how she was approached by the Board of Supervisor Hewitt and Senator Stones on getting seniors 70yrs and older vaccinated. She explained that the vaccinations would be mobile so they can reach the seniors that cannot get out. She mentioned that she attended the dedication of the Salt Creek Trail.
