4. PUBLIC COMMENTS

None

5. NEW BUSINESS

5.1 Update on City Road Improvement Projects

City Engineer/Public Works Director, Don Allison, provided updates to the Bradley and Encanto Road paving projects, interchange/overpass plans for Scott and Newport Roads and talked about traffic circulation

6. MEMBER UPDATES

LeAnn Coletta requested a follow up for why the McCall overpass graffiti has been painted over with different colored paint, which leaves a strange patchwork pattern instead of using the same concrete color to conceal the graffiti better. Leah McGee announced the merger of the Sun City and Quail Valley Crime Watch units into one Menifee Crime Watch unit. She talked about the extensive training that all are undergoing and was pleased with the coordination of the new group. Jason Scott asked staff to look into the weeds that are piling up on our freeway on/off ramps and if Caltrans has been notified to clear those out lately.

7. CITY LIAISON UPDATE

Rob Johnson provided the Committee with a development update regarding the Planning Commission and City Council approval of the Texas Roadhouse Grill Restaurant and shared information on Planning Department Administrative Approvals of McDonald's (Bradley) landscape improvements and the Coffee and Yogurt Café in the Sun City Shopping Center. Mr. Johnson also shared information relating to upcoming programs and projects within the City's Community Services Division.

8. DISCUSSION OF UPCOMING AGENDA ITEMS

Crime Watch will be invited to speak at the next meeting to brief the Committee regarding the new combined Menifee Crime Watch.

9. ADJOURN

Meeting was adjourned at 7:36 pm.
