I certify and agree to the following:

All information provided is truthful. Qualified reimbursements must be submitted along with valid proof of purchase and business photos to be approved for payment. The Menifee Business Assistance Program is a one-time assistance program to reimburse eligible expenses related to state required commercial recycling mandates. Participation (or non-participation) in this program does not exempt any business from complying with federal, state, or local legislation. It is the sole responsibility of the business to maintain compliance with all federal, state, and local law pertaining at all times. This application for reimbursement may be denied and/or partially approved at the discretion of the City. The City may choose to discontinue this program at any time based on available funding.
